4 Lawful Bases for Processing Personal Data

- 4.1 The Federation only processes personal data where there is a lawful basis for doing so.
 - 4.1.1 Consent: the Data Subject has given clear consent for the Federation to process their personal data for a specific purpose.
 - 4.1.2 Contract: the processing is necessary for a contract the Federation has with a Data Subject, or because a Data Subject has asked the Federation to take specific steps before entering into a contract.
 - 4.1.3 Legal obligation: the processing is necessary for the Federation to comply with the law.
 - 4.1.4 Vital interests: the processing is necessary to protect the Data Subject's life.
 - 4.1.5 Public task: the processing is necessary for the Federation to perform a task in the public interest.
 - 4.1.6 Legitimate interests: the processing is necessary for the Federation's legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party, unless there is a good reason to protect the individual's personal data which overrides those legitimate interests.

4.2 In addition, the Federation will on occasion need to process special category personal data (e.g. when conducting medical tests) or criminal records information (e.g. when carrying out No Criminal / Sexual Conviction Record Checks) in accordance with rights or duties imposed on it by law, including as regards safeguarding and employment, or from time to time by explicit consent where required.

5 How the Federation Collects Personal Data

5.1 Generally, the Federation collects personal data from the individual directly. This may be via a form, an online platform or simply in the ordinary course of interaction or communication.

5.2 In some cases, personal data will be supplied by third parties (e.g. a National Sports Association or other professionals or authorities working with that individual) or collected from publicly available resources.

5.3 The Federation will not collect personal data from a minor without prior consent from a person with parental responsibility for the minor.

6 Access to and Sharing of Personal Data

6.1 For the most part, personal data collected by the Federation will remain within the Federation and will be processed by appropriate individuals on a “need to know” basis.

6.2 Some of the Federation’s processing activity is carried out on its behalf by third parties, such as IT systems, web developers or cloud storage providers. All the Federation’s service providers are bound by contractual duty to keep confidential any data they come into contact with against unauthorized access, use and retention.

6.3 Where necessary, the Federation may be required to share personal data with third parties, such as:

6.3.1 professional advisers (e.g. lawyers, insurers and auditors);

6.3.2 government authorities;

6.3.3 partners or related organizations (e.g. International Olympic Committee, Organizing Committee of multi-sports Games); and

6.3.4 where appropriate, parties who will be contacted by us during the handling of a complaint / enquiry case including the party being complained against and/or other parties concerned.

6.4 Personal data held by the Federation will not be disclosed to third parties unless the disclosure is for the purpose for which the data was to be used at the time of collection of the data or a directly related purpose, or with the express consent of the data subject given voluntarily unless the obtaining of such consent is exempted under the law.

6.5 Unnecessary and excessive disclosure of personal data will not be made. For example, in issuing documents in relation to complaint / enquiry cases or disciplinary matters, unnecessary and excessive personal data will be removed or redacted.

7 Information Collected on the Federation's Websites

- 7.1 A cookie is a small amount of data created in a computer when a person visits a website on the computer. It often includes an anonymous unique identifier. A cookie can be used to identify a computer. Cookies are used by the Federation to collect statistics about the number of visits of users to the Federation's websites and the users' preference of websites and online services offered on the Federation's websites. Users may choose to accept or reject cookies. If users reject cookies, they will not be able to use some of the functions of the websites, such as saving preferences and accessing some online services.
- 7.2 When a user visits the Federation's websites, the webserver makes a record of the visit that includes the user's IP addresses (and domain names), the types and configurations of browsers, language settings, geo-locations, operating systems, previous sites visited, and time/duration and the pages visited (webserver access log). The Federation uses the webserver access log for the purpose of maintaining and improving its websites such as to determine the optimal screen resolution, which pages have been most frequently visited etc. The Federation uses such data only for website enhancement and optimization purposes. The Federation does not use, and have no intention of using the visitor data to personally identify anyone.

8 Protection Measures

The Federation takes appropriate steps to protect the personal data it holds against loss, unauthorized access, use, modification or disclosure. For example, training on personal data protection is provided to staff members who need to handle personal data in their daily work.

9 Retention

Personal data will not be kept longer than is necessary for the fulfilment of the purpose for which it is collected. Personal data that is no longer needed is either irreversibly anonymised (and the anonymised information will be retained) or securely destroyed.

10 Data Access and Correction
